

Would you like to have a deeper understanding of the mysteries of the Mass?

Ever wonder why we have stained glass and statues in our churches?

Do you know people who stopped going to Mass because they thought it was "boring"?

Do you go week after week, but still feel like you don't always "get it"?

Please join us for a
TEACHING MASS

Saturday, October 27, 2012 at 6:00pm

St. William Church
1351 Main Street (Rt. 38), Tewksbury, MA

Fr. Matt Williams, Celebrant

followed by an ice cream sundae social in lower church

Everything from what the priest wears and does, to the words he says and the postures we assume, will be explored to bring a deeper understanding and appreciation of the Mass.

Light and entertaining, Fr. Matt brings new understanding to this central form of worship using everyday examples and even a football analogy. Fr. Matt brings out the joy of Mass while demonstrating a deep respect for its powerful truths.

Fr. Matt is the Director of the Office of the New Evangelization. He is full of energy and enthusiasm. This is an event that you will not want to miss!

Be sure to invite your fallen away and non-Catholic friends and relatives!
