Damon Owens is the founder of Joy-Filled Marriage NJ, which provides training, resources, and support for engaged and married couples. He and his wife, Melanie, have been teaching and promoting Natural Family Planning (NFP) throughout New Jersey since 1993. They serve as the NFP Program Coordinators for the Archdiocese of Newark. Damon is also the National Spokesman for L.E.A.R.N. (Life, Education, and Resource Network), which is the national network of independent African-American pro-life organizations.

Damon earned a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering from Brown University in 1988 and an M.S. in Mechanical Engineering from the University of California at Berkeley in 1990. He worked in engineering and technology for several years before changing career paths to work full-time in support of marriage and the family.

Damon has had several television appearances including EWTN Life on the Rock, ABC World News Tonight and CBS News 48 Hours. He is also an accomplished gospel singer and had a solo during the 1995 NJ Papal Mass.

Damon and Melanie currently live in West Orange, NJ with their six young daughters.
